

Parliamentary Inquiries

June 2014

Committee inquiries provide an opportunity for organisations and individuals to participate in policy making and have their views placed on the public record and considered as part of the decision-making process.

This Occasional Paper provides a brief overview of the new and continuing Senate, House and Joint Committee inquiries in the 44th Parliament. These inquiries are either still accepting submissions or are no longer accepting submissions but are yet to report.

The Hawker Britton Occasional Paper on Parliamentary Committees and inquiries is available here.

Australian National Preventive Health Agency (Abolition) Bill 2014

The Australian National Preventive Health Agency \(Abolition\) Bill 2014 abolishes the Australian National Preventive Health Agency, which provides leadership across the non-government, health promotion and primary care sectors to deliver coordinated and effective preventive health activities and policies. The Agency plays a central role in collaborating across the health sector, embedding preventive health as central to the delivery of health care.

The closing date for submissions was 6 June 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 14 July 2014.

Business Services Wage Assessment Tool Payment Scheme Bill 2014

The Senate referred the Business Services Wage Assessment Tool Payment Scheme Bill 2014 and the Business Services Wage Assessment Tool Payment Scheme \(Consequential Amendments\) Bill 2014 to the Community Affairs Legislation Committee for inquiry and report.

The two bills respond to the Federal Court's decision in Nojin v Commonwealth of Australia [2012] FCAFC 192 by establishing a payment scheme for supported employees with intellectual impairment in Australian Disability Enterprises who previously had their wages assessed under the Business Services Wage Assessment Tool.

The closing date for submissions is 23 July 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 26 August 2014.

Health Workforce Australia (Abolition) Bill 2014

The Health Workforce Australia \(Abolition\) Bill 2014 abolishes Health Workforce Australia and provides for transitional arrangements, including the transfer of assets, liabilities, interests in land, records and instruments to the Commonwealth, and the transfer of functions and programs to the Department of Health. Health Workforce Australia was established by Labor to provide a national, long-term, coordinated approach to health workforce planning and reform to ensure that Australia's health workforce can meet Australia's health needs into the future.

The closing date for submissions was 6 June 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 14 July 2014.

National Health Amendment (Pharmaceutical Benefits) Bill 2014

The National Health Amendment \(Pharmaceutical Benefits\) Bill 2014 amends the National Health Act 1953 in relation to the Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme and the Repatriation Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme by:

- increasing the concessional patient co-payment by 80 cents from 1 January 2015;
- increasing the general patient co-payment by $5.00 from 1 January 2015;
- increasing the general patient safety net threshold by 10 per cent each year for four years; and increasing the concessional safety net threshold by two prescriptions each year for four years.

The closing date for submissions is 23 July 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 26 August 2014.

Private Health Insurance Amendment (GP Services) Bill 2014

The Private Health Insurance Amendment \(GP Services\) Bill 2014 amends the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 to clarify that private health insurers may not enter into agreements or arrangements with primary care providers that provide preferential treatment to their members. The Bill specifies in clear language that insurers cannot pay GPs for treatment of their members, nor can they pay to get their members preferential access to treatment.

The closing date for submissions is 18 July 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 4 September 2014.

Social Security Legislation Amendment (Stronger Penalties for Serious Failures) Bill 2014

The Social Security Legislation Amendment \(Stronger Penalties for Serious Failures\) Bill 2014 amends the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999 to provide that:

- jobseekers who incur an eight week non-payment penalty for refusing suitable work will no longer be able to have the penalty waived; and
- jobseekers who fail to comply with participation obligations will only be able to have the penalty waived once while in receipt of an activity tested income support payment.

The closing date for submissions is 18 July 2014.

The Committee is due to report by 26 August 2014.

Social Services and Other Legislation Amendments

The Social Services and Other Legislation Amendment \(2014 Budget Measures No. 1\) Bill 2014 and the Social Services and Other Legislation Amendment \(2014 Budget Measures No. 2\) Bill 2014 amend Social Security legislation to place various restrictions on access to benefits for students, pensioners, families and veterans by:

- pausing indexation on certain income and assets test free areas and thresholds;
- indexing pensions to the CPI;
- include tax-free superannuation income in the assessment of income for qualification for the seniors health card;
- increasing the age pension qualifying age from 67 to 70 years;
- restricting qualification for relocation scholarship payments;
- replacing newstart or sickness allowance with the lower youth allowance for 22 to 24 year olds;
- creating a 26-week waiting periods and non-payment periods;

Trade and Foreign Investment (Protecting the Public Interest) Bill 2014

The Trade and Foreign Investment \(Protecting the Public Interest\) Bill 2014 seeks to prevent the Commonwealth from entering into agreements with foreign countries that include investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) clauses.

ISDS clauses are designed to allow foreign corporations to sue governments if their business activities and interests are impinged on by the policy and legislative decisions of the government.

There are ISDS clauses in a number of Australia's agreements with other countries, including in the recently signed Korea Australia Free Trade Agreement (KAFTA), the Singapore FTA, the Chile FTA, the ASEAN FTA and the Thai FTA. It is believed that the Trans-Pacific partnership agreement which is currently under negotiation has ISDS clauses on the table as well.

The Australian Government is currently being sued under ISDS clauses over plain packaging.
