

Northern Territory Shadow Ministry

May 2015

On 20 April Delia Lawrie stood down as Leader of the Opposition in the Northern Territory. She was succeeded by Michael Gunner MLA.

Mr. Gunner on Friday 23 April then announced his new Shadow Cabinet. Significant appointments include the election of Lynn Walker as Deputy Leader of the Opposition and Natasha Fyles as Opposition Whip.

Mr. Gunner also announced a new additional shadow portfolio: Open and Transparent Government.

A table of the updated Northern Territory Shadow Cabinet is attached overleaf.

About Michael Gunner MLA

Michael Gunner is the Member of the Northern Territory Legislative Assembly for Fanny Bay. He was elected to office in 2008. Before his endorsement as Opposition Leader, Michael was the Opposition Whip and held the Shadow portfolios of Lands and Planning, Infrastructure, Public and Affordable Housing and Asian Relations and Trade.

About Lynne Walker

Lynne Walker is the Member for Nhulunbuy in the Northern Territory Legislative Assembly. She was elected to office at the 2008 election. Prior to the latest reshuffle Lynne was the Shadow Minister for Health, Tourism, Police, Fire and Emergency Services, Statehood, Public Employment and Women's Policy.

About Natasha Fyles

Natasha Fyles was elected to the Northern Territory Legislative Assembly in 2012 as the Member for Nightcliff. She previously held the Opposition portfolios of Attorney-General and Justice, Corrections, Alcohol Policy, Racing, Gaming and Licensing and Government Accountability.
