

Updated ACT Ministry List

July 2014

On 4 July 2014, ACT Chief Minister Katy Gallagher MLA, announced a number of changes to ministerial portfolios to allow for the addition of a sixth minister in Cabinet, Mick Gentleman MLA.

Mr Gentleman will take responsibility for planning, community services, workplace safety and industrial relations, children and young people, and ageing.

The updated ACT Ministry list is provided on the following page.

The inclusion of a sixth Cabinet minister comes as the ACT prepares for its current 17-member Legislative Assembly to be increased to 25 members, following the next election on 15 October 2016.

In accordance with some of the portfolio changes, Chief Minister Gallagher also detailed alterations to administrative structures, with the Economic Development Directorate joining the central agencies of Chief Ministers and Treasury (CMTD), and the functions of the Commerce and Works Directorate to be delivered by the Treasury arm of CMTD.
