

SA Cabinet as at 21 January 2013

On Monday 21 January 2013 South Australian Premier Jay Weatherill announced a Cabinet reshuffle, reducing the Cabinet in size from 15 to 13 members.

The reshuffle follows the resignation to the backbench of four senior Cabinet members; Patrick Conlon, John Hill, Russell Wortley and Paul Caica, over the preceding week.

The new Cabinet was sworn in by South Australian Governor Kevin Scarce at Government House on the morning of the announcement.

Among the changes, Premier Weatherill will take on the role of Treasurer, making him the first Premier to also hold the Treasury portfolio since former Labor leader John Bannon in 1992.

The next South Australian election will be held in March 2014.

Premier Weatherill's press release is available here.
